

THE SACRED PATHWAYS

How do you relate to God? Take this assessment and find out which of the nine Spiritual Pathways best describes you.

Score the following statements on a scale of 1 to 5, with 1 being not true at all and 5 being very true.

NATURE

- ___ 1. I feel closest to God when I'm surrounded by what He has made - the mountains, the forests or the ocean.
- ___ 2. I feel cut off if I have to spend too much time indoors, just listening to speakers or singing songs. Nothing makes me feel closer to God than being outside.
- ___ 3. I would rather worship God by spending an hour beside a small brook than by participating in a group service.
- ___ 4. If I could escape to a garden to pray on a cold day, walk through a meadow on a warm day and take a trip by myself to the mountains on another day, I would be very happy.
- ___ 5. A book called Nature's Sanctuaries: A Picture Book would be appealing to me.
- ___ 6. Seeing God's beauty in nature is more moving to me than understanding new concepts, participating in a formal religious service or participating in social causes.

- ____ 4. I sense God's power when I am counseling a friend who has lost a job, preparing meals for or fixing the car of a family in need, or spending a week at an orphanage in Mexico.
- ____ 5. A book titled "99 Ways to Help Your Neighbor" would be very appealing to me.

Nine Sacred Pathways

Spiritual temperaments that God creates in human beings so that we can connect and worship Him in unique ways. (Based on Sacred Pathways: Discover Your Soul's Path to God by Gary Thomas © 1996)

1. Naturalists — love God best outdoors. These people worship in the midst of God's creation. They celebrate His majesty and discover spiritual truths through nature
2. Sensates — love God through their senses. These people worship through sensual experiences — sights (like art), sounds (music), smells, and more
3. Traditionalists — love God through religious ritual and symbols. These people worship through traditions and sacraments of the Church. They believe structure, repetition, and rigidity, like weekly liturgy, leads to deeper understanding of God and faith
4. Ascetics — love God in solitude and simplicity. These people worship through prayer and quiet time, and the absence of all outside noise and distraction
5. Activists — love God through confrontation, fighting for godly principles and values. They worship through their dedication to and participation in God's truth about social and evangelistic causes
6. Caregivers — love God by serving others, and worship by giving of themselves. They may nurse the sick and disabled, "adopt" a prisoner, donate time at a shelter, etc.
7. Enthusiasts — love God through mystery and celebration. These people worship with outward displays of passion and enthusiasm. They love God with gusto!
8. Contemplatives — love God through adoration. These people worship by their attentiveness, deep love, and intimacy. They have an active prayer life
9. Intellectuals — love God with their mind and their hearts are opened up to a new attentiveness when they understand something new about God. These people worship through intense study, apologetics, and intellectual pursuits of their faith.

Please note:

- We are a mixture — we rarely rely on a single approach or temperament to connect with God every time; we are more likely to be a mix of several
- Temperaments change — spiritual temperaments evolve over time, much like couples love each other differently over the course of a marriage. We are likely to find different ways to connect with God during our lifetime
